

NICOLE THAM YEHUI

Art Therapist

Master of Arts, Art Therapy –
LASALLE College of the Arts (Singapore)
Goldsmiths, University of London (UK).
Bachelor of Business,
Nanyang Technological University (Singapore)
Postgraduate Certificate in Therapeutic Play Skills (UK)
Advanced Diploma in Special Education (Singapore)

Nicole is passionate about working with children and supporting their holistic growth and recovery. Art therapy has enabled her to harness the healing powers of creative expression for the children she has had the privilege of working with.

Nicole's therapeutic work has centred on children and adolescents in various community and acute settings. She has worked with clients with chronic illnesses and medical trauma, as well as clients from disadvantaged families who have experienced abuse, loss and neglect. Nicole is an advocate of working closely with families and works with multidisciplinary teams to support the family in enabling the holistic development of the child. Besides individual work, Nicole has experience running creative arts programmes for children with developmental delays, workshops for children experiencing grief and loss, as well as sibling and parent-child bonding sessions.

Nicole is a qualified art psychotherapist and is a member of the Australian and New Zealand Arts Therapy Association (ANZATA). She is also a qualified therapeutic play practitioner and member of Play Therapy International (PTI).
